To All Shareholders:

The Board of Directors is establishing e-mail as a means of communicating required association updates such as meetings notices and rules changes. Legally required notices will be sent or posted as required.

Florida Administrative Code 61B-75.002 requires that members must provide written consent in order to receive official communications from the Association via electronic transmission (email). This consent form will allow Polo Park East Resident Owners Association to send you meeting notices, rules changes, community alerts and other electronic transmissions.

Before submitting this consent form, please review and be aware of the following:

1. You are not required to submit this form. You may request that meeting notices, community alerts, and other matters of official business be sent to you via regular mail.
2. You have the right to withdraw your written consent at any time after submitting this form by providing your Association with written notice that you are withdrawing your consent relative to electronic transmission. No fee will be charged for withdrawing your consent.
3. This consent to electronic transmission is broad, and may include transmission of meeting notices, community alerts and other important information regarding your Association. This consent form represents consent under Florida Administrative Code 61B-75.002
4. If you change your email address, note that you must submit a new form to update your Association's database.
5. While every effort will be made to keep e-mail addresses confidential, please be advised that e-mail addresses that are submitted become part of the Association's membership records and is open to inspection by members.

If you would like to participate in the electronic transmission of notices, please complete the attached Consent Form and return it to the Polo Park East Association office.
